STUDIO SERIES & REHABILITATIVE (PP, SR1-SR6)

PP - Polestar Pilates Principles of Movement - ONLINE

Learn and apply the theories of movement that lay the foundation for Polestar Pilates in this prerequisite for all other Polestar courses. Using evidence-based research, you will discover the passage ways for movement throughout the body and develop the tools to provide either assistance for or challenge your clients in helping them achieve their goals. Polestar Principles will bring to life your ability to assess, problem-solve, design and modify exercise programs to meet specific needs and abilities.

This non-apparatus course introduces current research in movement science, motor learning, bioenergetics, and communication science to instructional practice through basic movement principles which are used throughout the Polestar Pilates curriculum. This course introduces Polestar Assessment Tool™, which includes postural evaluation and functional testing, to prepare you to properly design a plan to implement Pilates exercises for clients. This unique component significantly enhances decision-making skills as a Pilates practitioner.

Students will complete online (self-paced) modules about each Principle inclusive of built in webinars and attend a live online lecture hosted by an Educator, to revise and discuss the findings in the unit. There are 6 modules for students to complete with 6 follow up online discussions. Students must purchase the accompanying manual for this course on Amazon, below is the link to purchase:

<https://www.amazon.com.au/Principles-Movement-B-Anderson/dp/1630914681>

For those individuals taking more than one course (such as Reformer and/or Comprehensive Studio/Rehab), this course is required only once.

SR1- SR6: Studio/Rehab Levels 1-6

The Pilates Studio/Rehab program has six course Units scheduled approximately one month apart. The time between courses allows you to practice and become comfortable with the material before continuing to the next course. Each course is two days, usually Saturday and Sunday. For final assessment, you will be required to complete at your own expense, the required reading and writing assignments, as well as hours of observation, self-mastery practice and apprentice teaching.

These Units review the postural screening methodology and the six principles learned in PP, then applies them to exercises on the Studio Reformer, Trapeze Table, Chair, Ladder Barrel, Mat and small props. Students will receive a comprehensive didactic and theoretical review and practical training using a clinical reasoning approach. Each Unit consists of a formal lecture, reading assignments, research literature review, and writing assignments. Also covered:

- Verbal and tactile cueing combined with mental imagery to facilitate accurate execution of movement
- Program design and exercise sequencing
- Practical application of the repertoire through use of case studies
- Exercise modifications for a variety of populations
- Adjustment of equipment for patient safety and instructor efficiency
- Progression of movement following an injury
- Indications and contraindications for exercise selection

REHAB STREAM:

There are two streams of this course ‘Studio and Rehab’. All students learn exactly the same repertoire and attend course lectures together however those students that are from a Rehab background like Physiotherapy, Osteopathy, or Chiropractor will complete case studies, exams and assignments covering more in-depth medical applications.

- Integration of manual mobilisation skills and Pilates movement (appropriate to your scope of practice)
- Learn how to create treatment plans and case studies using the Polestar Pilates Assessment Tool and the ICF Model.

COURSE ASSESSMENT

Assessment requirements include: attending all of the course hours, completing reading and writing assignments, as well as a specified number of observation, self-mastery, and apprentice teaching hours as noted below. To track your hours and progress, a log book will be issued at the start of your course with your materials. Self-mastery hours include 30% of self-directed hours i.e. practicing the repertoire in your own time at home or with other students. NOTE: Polestar Online Academy can also be used as a tool for your self-practice hours. The remaining hours may be a combination of Matwork, reformer and/or studio sessions.

Apprentice Teaching: Once you feel confident in the repertoire, you will be expected to assist a senior instructor or Pilates practitioner (preferably Polestar qualified) within a Pilates Studio workplace in order to gain practical experience. You will teach under their guidance and assist with tactile cueing and client correction for the remaining hour to achieve sign off. NOTE: a qualified Pilates instructor must be present at all Apprentice Teaching sessions to provide sign off and feedback.
